MEMBERS OF ART CLASS HEAR TALK BY ARTIST
Mrs. C. A. Vanderhoof gave the members of the art department and other members of the Nineteenth Century club a most delightful hour Thursday afternoon, when she made a talk on "The Development of American Art."

In the beginning she stated that American art had undoubtedly been influenced by the pictures brought to this country by the early settlers from England and Holland.

She spoke of Patience Worth, an artist of Revolutionary time, famous for her medallions in wax. She taught the art to her son, who was made a designer of American coins by one of the early congresses.

An appreciation of landscape painting was indicated by Mrs. Vanderhoof, who thought by the Hudson School of Art, while the arts and crafts schools had done much to educate the people. She expressed the belief that the world's exhibitions had done more than any other one thing to educate the masses to an appreciation of art. Paris, she said, was the center of influence in art during the last half of the nineteenth century.

In closing Mrs. Vanderhoof expressed her appreciation of the sympathetic interest given her by her audience.

A most interesting feature of the afternoon was the opportunity to view several of Mrs. Vanderhoof's own paintings, eight pastels. Some of the sketches done by the late Mrs. Vanderhoof have been given by Mrs. Vanderhoof to the Boston Museum and the Liberal Arts gallery in New York and members of the Memphis Art association have been so fortunate as to secure some of them for the Brooks Memorial gallery.

Services at Temple.
For the services at the temple on Poplar avenue on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Rabbi William H. Pinschler has chosen as the subject of his discourse, "Christian Americanization—What Does It Mean?"

Mrs. Sam Oppenheimer, organist, has arranged an excellent musical program, with Mrs. Charles Miller as the soloist. The public has been cordially invited to attend.

High School Association.
The Central high school Parent-Teacher association held a very interesting meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Berry Brooks, the president, in the chair.

Plans were completed at this meeting to entertain the graduates with a box party at the Lyric on Jan. 20 to be followed by a tea at the Hotel Gayoso.

Mr. C. P. Jester, principal of the school, gave an interesting talk. Mrs. Allen Miller was elected treasurer and 23 new members joined the association.

To the English teachers the association presented a Victoria, and plans were started to fit up an ideal room for the teachers.

A delightful social hour was held following the business meeting and refreshments were served by six of the domestic science pupils from a beautifully drained table. The centerpiece was a large cut glass vase, from which streamers of ribbons in the high school colors, green and gold, gracefully radiated across the handsome cloth. Dainty bouquets were artistically arranged in cut glass dishes.

Much credit is due the ladies who were in charge of the social hour and planned the dainty refreshments.

More than 100 guests had the pleasure of being present.

Soloist at Church.
Mr. Angelo Cortese, harpist, will be the soloist on Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church, of which the Rev. C. H. Williamson is pastor.

Intercollegiate Association.
The Memphis Intercollegiate association will hold a special meeting Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the Lyric theatre parlors. The continuing Hey, Fellers! Let's Talk About Quality and Price!

No doubt, you know all about the Little Man's Toggery Shop that Phil A. Halle built specially for you "Little Man."

We know you read all about our imported woollens—being hand-tailored into Suits and Overcoats—about the clever designs in Silk Shirts—also the mannish looking headgear and brogue Footwear—and about personal service and expert fitters.

Some of you may have thought about the price—probably thought the price much higher than elsewhere—but, No! No! Little Man, you are going to get a surplus of quality and style—the kind that Phil A. Halle gives to your Dad, and we are not going to make you pay any more than you have been paying for just the ordinary kind of Boys' Clothes.

Yours for efficient service,

PHIL A. HALLE
